
Confidence Elementary School

Bond Facts

The Putnam County Board of Education is conducting a special bond election on Saturday, August 29, 2009 that includes $8,824,366 for the construction of a new Confidence Elementary School.

If the bond passes, the new Confidence Elementary School will include:

- Approximately 38,000 square feet
- New classrooms
- New computer lab
- New library/media center
- New music/art classroom
- New dining room
- New kitchen
- New gymnasium
- Office suite with conference areas
- Faculty planning areas
- New restrooms
- Storage areas
- New parking areas
- New playground area

The new Confidence Elementary School will be built to house approximately 250 students in grades preK-5 and will be located on property acquired by the Board of Education within 5 miles of the existing Confidence Elementary School.

Additional Projects Included in the Bond

New Buffalo High School
New Poca Middle School
New Winfield Middle School
New Gymnasium at Winfield Elementary

Auxiliary Gym at Hurricane High School
Auxiliary Gym at Poca High School
Auxiliary Gym at Winfield High School
Major Renovations at Poca Elementary

Election Information

Election Day—Saturday, August 29, 2009

Early Voting—Weekdays from August 7-August 26, 2009 - 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (Courthouse)

Voter Registration Deadline—Monday, August 10, 2009

For more information go to: www.putnamschools.com
